

Table with multiple columns containing financial data, including fund names, asset values, and performance metrics. The table is organized into several vertical sections.